Note that this is a competitive selection process, and the onus is on each applicant to present their claims clearly, succinctly, and persuasively.

The key selection criteria for the Contingent Leader are:

1. Demonstrated relevant event management experience at either a Region, Branch or National level and/or Contingent experience for a major event.

Eg: Event Organising Committee or Contingent Management Team

2. Demonstrated capacity, or aptitude, for effective communication with a group of Scouts from different locations and backgrounds.

Note that effective communication with all team members from the early planning stage to completion of the event is critical for success. Please include in your response details of your plan for effective communication.

3. Ability to liaise effectively with Scouts Australia, State and Territory Branches, International Scouting organisations and non-Scouting organisations.
4. Be able to build and develop relationships between Scouts Australia and the host National Scout Organization.

6. Demonstrated ability, or capacity, to create and manage a flexible itinerary or schedule for a group of people.
7. Demonstrated ability to compile a Contingent Plan for the event.

The draft Contingent Plan you provide should consider the following items:

- The number of positions you would have on your Contingent Team, and a basic duty statement for each;

- What you hope you and the Members of the Contingent will gain from Scouts Australia attending this event.

Two referees and a recommendation from your Branch Chief Commissioner are required to be provided with your application.

The selection of the Contingent Leader will be carried out by a panel representing the International Team of Scouts Australia. This independent panel will review your application based on your statement of claims and other relevant information. Interviews may be conducted by the panel, which will then make a recommendation to the International Commissioner of Australia, who, in turn, forwards the recommendation to the Chief Commissioner of Australia. All candidates will then be notified of the outcome and the Contingent Leader will be appointed by the Chief Commissioner of Australia.

Tips on addressing selection criteria

It is essential to respond to each criterion, writing one to two paragraphs explaining how you have demonstrated the particular skill or quality. Provide relevant examples and be clear and to the point. You should also edit your responses for grammar, spelling and punctuation.

It is important to provide evidence to back up your claims. Where possible use actual examples of what you have done, how well you did it, what you achieved, and how it relates to the requirements of the job.

The STAR model can help you form your answer.

What is the STAR model?

The STAR model is one way of presenting information against selection criteria. For each criterion think about the following and use these points to form sentences:

Situation - Set the context by describing the circumstance where you used the skills or qualities and gained the experience.

Task - What was your role?

Actions - What did you do and how did you do it?

Results - What did you achieve? What was the end result and how does it relate to the job you are applying for?

Claims against the Selection Criteria:

As Contingent Leader for the XYZ Branch for ABC event, I needed to ensure that our stakeholders, including Branch Commissioners and Contingent members were kept informed of all details in regards to the event. To do this, I initiated a monthly newsletter, which was emailed to each Contingent member. I took responsibility for writing the main articles in each publication. This involved obtaining ideas and input from other stakeholders to ensure that the articles reflected the needs of the Contingent team, both in terms of content and language. I received consistently excellent feedback in relation to this newsletter from the Contingent members and from Scouts interested in attending the event. I received a Bravo for the quality of this newsletter from the Chief Commissioner. Most importantly, this initiative resulted in improved lines of communication between Contingent members and the Contingent executive.
