Role Description

Government House Camp 2024

Adult Leader

Role Description: Adult Leader

Reports to	Team Leader	Functional Group	Human Resources
Team	Program	# of Direct Reports	N/A

About the event

This event will see up to 2,500 Joey Scouts, Cub Scouts, Scouts, Venturer Scouts and Rover Scouts from across Australia travel to camp in the grounds of Government House Canberra. This is the first time in almost a century that Scouts have camped at the residence of our Chief Scout, the Governor-General of Australia.

This camp will truly be a unique opportunity for a large group of Australian Scouts to experience a large-scale event in the heart of our nation. With young people at the centre of this experience, this camp will focus on unforgettable memories and real learning outcomes.

In addition to the unique experiences, the event has the potential to generate significant community interest given the location and historical importance. The event will capitalise on this opportunity to engage the political, government, business and philanthropic sectors to promote the benefits, impact, and importance of Scouting in the 21st century.

Why join the team?

Joining the event team will be a challenging and highly rewarding experience. An Adult Leader will play a vital role in ensuring the success and safety of the camp, sharing in the satisfaction of creating a positive experience for attendees. You'll also experience the once in a lifetime opportunity to camp in the backyard of our Chief Scout!

What is the purpose of my role?

This position involves working closely with camp leaders, Scouts, and other adult volunteers to create a positive and enriching experience for all camp participants. The Adult Leader will provide support, guidance, and assistance in various camp activities, fostering a safe and inclusive environment while helping Scouts gain valuable life skills. Most importantly, you get to help us create the event of a lifetime for up to 2500 youth members.

Where do I fit in?

As an adult leader, you may be involved in a range of tasks which may be general in nature or aligned specifically to your skill set. As an adult leader, you will be required to attend the event for the full duration. Your role will be closely aligned to supporting Scouts within Unit life, ensuring wellbeing of the Scouts in your care.

During the application process, you will have the opportunity to nominate any specific skills or experience. These will be considered when allocating roles for the event.
