

Position Description

JAMBOREE TROOP LEADER

Reports to	Contingent Management Team (CMT)
Works with	New Zealand Jamboree Troop Leader Australian Contingent Health & Wellbeing Team

Why does my role exist?

The Australian Contingent to the 23rd New Zealand Jamboree includes 78 Patrols of Australian Scouts. Of these Patrol, 20 will be placed into 'international-only' Jamboree Troops. As a Jamboree Troop Leader, you will oversee on-the-ground operations of a Jamboree Troop consisting of six (6) international Patrols and six (6) Leaders from international Contingents (Australia, Fiji, and Papua New Guinea). In the lead up to the Jamboree, you will receive information and disseminate that to your Line Leader Team to ensure everyone is ready to go once you arrive onsite at the Jamboree.

You will also be a Patrol Adult Leader for one Patrol in your Troop (see separate position description).

Where do I fit in?

As a Jamboree Troop, you will report to the Contingent Management Team. You'll also receive support from the Troop Support Directorate of the Jamboree Organising Committee once we arrive onsite at the Jamboree. As needed, you'll collaborate with the Australian Contingent Health & Wellbeing Team to support the physical and mental health of youth members in your Troop (with support from the relevant Patrol Adult Leader).

What does the role involve?

- Attend an online briefing prior to the Jamboree with the Australian Contingent Management Team, Jamboree Organising Team, and fellow Australian Jamboree Troop Leaders.
- Organise an online meeting with Line Leaders from your Troop prior to the Jamboree.
- Organise an online meeting with the Unit Council (PLs and Leaders) prior to the Jamboree.
- Provide input into the Troop badge and name.
- Attend onsite meetings for Jamboree Troop Leaders (or organise for a delegate to attend).
- Oversee the cooking operations for your Jamboree Troop, with support from your fellow Line Leaders.
- Oversee set up of tents for your Jamboree Troop, with support from your fellow Line Leaders.
- Take time to manage your own wellbeing and seek support from the Australian Contingent Health & Wellbeing Team as necessary.
- Have fun!
