

SCOUTS AUSTRALIA – ROLE DESCRIPTION

Assistant Contingent Leader

Role Title	Assistant Contingent Leader
Business Unit	Contingent Management Team – World Scout Jamboree 2027
Reports to	Contingent Leader – World Scout Jamboree 2027
Role Level	Uniform Role, Volunteer
Appointment	Fixed term appointment until October 2027

Scouts Australia is a Child Safe organisation. Scouts Australia is inclusive of all, regardless of gender, sexuality, race, religion, or abilities and does not tolerate any form of harm, abuse, or neglect.

ORGANISATION OBJECTIVE

The aim of Scouting is to encourage the spiritual, physical, intellectual, emotional, social and character development of young people to enable them to become resilient, self-confident and responsible citizens.

This is achieved through an active, adventure-based program, which develops initiative, teamwork and leadership skills so young Australians can attain their full potential, both as individuals and members of their local, national and international communities.

Scouting is the largest non-formal educational youth organisation in the World with over 50 million members. In Australia, Scouting has a membership of approximately 70,000, of which approximately 50,000 are youth members or young adults with the remainder being older adults supporting the delivery of the program.

ROLE OBJECTIVE

The Australian Contingent is seeking to build a team of talented, dedicated, and enthusiastic Scouting people to lead the participation of Australian Scouts aged 14-17 years old in the 2027 World Scout Jamboree.

As the Assistant Contingent Leader (ACL), you will be part of the Contingent Executive and work across the team to plan an outstanding international experience for Scouts from across Australia. Supported by the Contingent Leader (CL) and Deputy Contingent Leader (DCL), you'll be exposed to every element of event management, providing you with significant opportunities for learning and contribution to the event objectives. Through this role you'll share the CL's passion for creating unique and memorable experiences for our Youth and Adult Members alike, being proactive in contributing to the Contingents' success.

The ACL role is designed for a young Rover Scouts who attended the World Scout Jamboree in 2023 as a youth member. Prior event experience is not necessarily required however will be looked upon favorably through the application process. Women and gender diverse people are strongly encouraged to apply and will be given priority consideration for this role to enable gender balance in the Contingent Executive Team.

The ACL should be over 18 Years of age at the time of appointment, however candidates who are approaching their 18th birthday will be considered for the role.

KEY STAKEHOLDERS

- Contingent members (youth and adults)
- Parents and Guardians of youth members
- Contingent Management Team
- Jamboree Organising Committee
- International Team Members
- National Support Team

ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES

This role comes with a number of responsibilities including the ones listed below. Due to the unpredictable nature of the event, there will be times you are asked to take on additional responsibilities and that is an expectation of this role.

At all times this position will demonstrate behaviours in accordance with Scouts Australia purpose, principles and Association values. and will adhere to the Adult Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct.

As Assistant Contingent Leader you will:

- Deliver an event master plan through working collaboratively with the wider CMT, distributing it to the wider Contingent.
- Lead the design and execution of pre-event camps with the Program Team, consulting with all teams on what structure would work best to reach the desired outcomes.
- Work closely with the Finance & Risk team to ensure budgets are completed on time, meeting with each team to try find efficiencies and cost savings where possible.
- Chair the 'Core Team' meetings, ensuring an agenda is circulated prior to meetings, meetings run to time and action items are followed up.
- Chair meetings of the Unit Chairs during the event, ensuring any feedback is given directly to the CMT and actioned.
- Maintain the org chart and Contingent contact list before and during the event, including ensuring these contacts are reachable while in country.
- Maintain a broad focus across all Teams, proactively identifying issues as they occur, creating solutions where possible.
- Explore and prepare the itineraries for the HOC Meetings, including an outline of the relevant CMT members who should attend.
- Use your platform as ACL to actively promote the event, encouraging registrations.
- Complete any tasks reasonably delegated to you by the CL or DCL.
- Be prepared to act on behalf of CL or DCL should you be required to do so.

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR/SELECTION CRITERIA

Running the Contingent for the World Scout Jamboree requires confident and capable people who are willing and able to take on the large task in front of them.

The people we're looking for:

- A Rover Scout or young Leader who has previously attended a World Scout Jamboree as a participant.
- Prepared to gain sound understanding of Safe from Harm in accordance with Scouts Australia Child Safety Policy including principles, standards, and procedures.
- Focused on the collective rather than the individual.
- Self-driven, with an ability to work collaboratively.
- Able to operate professionally, with integrity and due respect for confidentiality.
- Ready to take on the significant time commitment which should not be underestimated. Even though this is a volunteer position you will be held to the deliverables of your role.
- Solely focused is on creating experiences for our youth during the event, meaning you may not have the opportunity for the same self-enjoyment, rather gaining satisfaction from the experience created for our youth.
- Passionate about events and want to help us succeed.
- Are current members of a Scouts Australia Branch and will maintain that membership throughout the tenure of your role.
- Hold a current Working with Children/Vulnerable Persons check in the Branch of which you are a member and agree to maintain this check throughout the tenure of your role.
- Have had a National Police check and agreed to any further check as required from time to time.
- Have completed and passed all mandatory training with a commitment to renew successfully every two years.

- Have attached two referees to your application who can speak to your past experience and your style of operating.
- Expected you to contribute, agree and uphold the team charter.

Desirable additional qualities:

- Sound knowledge and understanding of the Scouts Australia program.
- Have excellent IT skills, including the ability to use the Microsoft Office 365 package, online registration systems, and complex spreadsheets.
- Experience in international travel.

You will be required to commit a significant amount of time for this role. Anticipate approximately 5 -10+ hours per week. Applicants should ensure they have the flexibility in their time to be able to accommodate this significant contribution considering their work and study requirements. They should be available during the lead up to and the full duration of the event including the HOC Meetings, pre and post tours. This role is a volunteer position and you will be required to undergo a probationary period of 6 months to assess suitability to the position.
