

SCOUTS AUSTRALIA – ROLE DESCRIPTION

Head of Health & Wellbeing

Role Title	Head of Health & Wellbeing
Business Unit	Contingent Management Team – World Scout Jamboree 2027
Reports to	Contingent Leader – World Scout Jamboree 2027
Role Level	Uniform Role, Volunteer
Appointment	Fixed term appointment until October 2027

Scouts Australia is a Child Safe organisation. Scouts Australia is inclusive of all, regardless of gender, sexuality, race, religion, or abilities and does not tolerate any form of harm, abuse, or neglect.

ORGANISATION OBJECTIVE

The aim of Scouting is to encourage the spiritual, physical, intellectual, emotional, social and character development of young people to enable them to become resilient, self-confident and responsible citizens.

This is achieved through an active, adventure-based program, which develops initiative, teamwork and leadership skills so young Australians can attain their full potential, both as individuals and members of their local, national and international communities.

Scouting is the largest non-formal educational youth organisation in the World with over 50 million members. In Australia, Scouting has a membership of approximately 70,000, of which approximately 50,000 are youth members or young adults with the remainder being older adults supporting the delivery of the program.

ROLE OBJECTIVE

The Australian Contingent is seeking to build a team of talented, dedicated, and enthusiastic Scouting people to lead the participation of Australian Scouts aged 14-17 years old in the 2027 World Scout Jamboree.

The World Scout Jamboree is the premier international event conducted by Scouts Australia requiring a high level of attention to detail and commitment to ensuring positive experiences for our youth members. As a member of the CMT you'll work collaboratively with the broader team to execute the roles and responsibilities outlined in your role's scope.

The Head of Health & Wellbeing is responsible for providing comprehensive health support and emergency health management for the Contingent throughout the event. This involves ensuring the team has the necessary medical expertise and capacity to handle the size of the group, while also accommodating any special needs or arrangements for participants. The role requires collaboration with other teams to maintain appropriate ratios of leaders to youth, manage health data, and ensure critical medical information is communicated. A key focus is on mitigating risks and ensuring the wellbeing of all Contingent members.

KEY STAKEHOLDERS

- Contingent members (youth and adults)
- Parents and Guardians of youth members
- Contingent Management Team
- Jamboree Organising Committee
- International Team Members
- National Support Team

ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES

This role comes with a number of responsibilities including the ones listed below. Due to the unpredictable nature of the event, there will be times you are asked to take on additional responsibilities and that is an expectation of this role.

At all times this position will demonstrate behaviours in accordance with Scouts Australia purpose, principles and Association values. and will adhere to the Adult Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct.

As Head of Health & Wellbeing you will:

- Provide health and wellbeing support to the Contingent throughout the event, having suitable capacity in place to be able to handle the needs of the Contingent's size.
- Ensure the team has medical triage experience and is able to effectively manage emergency situations.
- In collaboration with the Administration team, create units based on geographic region, ensuring the correct ratio of leaders and youth based on their area. Also consider if they may have special arrangements or dietary challenges which need to be considered when forming units.
- Maintain a 1:80 ratio of Health & Wellbeing team members to Contingent Members.
- Create additions to the Scouts Australia Youth Code of Conduct relevant for the event which all youth members must sign and agree to adhere to.
- Work with the Administration Team to define the data requirements of the health and wellbeing team.
- Work collaboratively with the Finance and Risk team to identify and mitigate Health and Wellbeing risks within the Contingent.
- Maintain a flow of critical medical incident information to the CL during the event.
- Consider special arrangements for Contingent members who may require additional assistance to experience the event. Ensure these can be appropriately accommodated without putting additional strain on the Contingent.
- Implement the journal logbook at the event.
- Develop an understanding of the health systems in the countries the Contingent will visit and identify challenges which may need to be solved.
- Through both the Meet Camp and O-Camp, assess the eligibility of each youth member to attend the event. Consult unit leaders during this process.
- Prepare and regularly review the Health and Wellbeing Team budget, ensuring value is delivered to Contingent members.
- Build a strong team to support and complete the tasks required, with diversity in team members.
- Regularly attend the 'Core Team' Meetings with the relevant members of your team.
- Complete any other tasks reasonably required of you by the CL, DCL or ACL.

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR/SELECTION CRITERIA

Running the Contingent for the World Scout Jamboree requires confident and capable people who are willing and able to take on the large task in front of them.

The people we're looking for:

- Ready to build and develop the next generation of event leaders through both mentoring them and enabling them to take charge.
- Prepared to gain sound understanding of Safe from Harm in accordance with Scouts Australia Child Safety Policy including principles, standards, and procedures.
- Complete any training outlined as required by the International Commissioner.
- Focused on the collective rather than the individual.
- Self-driven, with an ability to work collaboratively.
- Able to operate professionally, with integrity and due respect for confidentiality.
- Ready to take on the significant time commitment which should not be underestimated. Even though this is a volunteer position you will be held to the deliverables of your role.

- Solely focused is on creating experiences for our youth during the event, meaning you may not have the opportunity for the same self-enjoyment, rather gaining satisfaction from the experience created for our youth.
 - Passionate about events and want to help us succeed.
 - Are current members of a Scouts Australia Branch and will maintain that membership throughout the tenure of your role.
 - Hold a current Working with Children/Vulnerable Persons check in the Branch of which you are a member and agree to maintain this check throughout the tenure of your role.
 - Have had a National Police check and agreed to any further check as required from time to time.
 - Have completed and passed all mandatory training with a commitment to renew successfully every two years.
 - Have attached two referees to your application who can speak to your past experience and your style of operating.
 - Expected you to contribute, agree and uphold the team charter.

Desirable additional qualities:

- Sound knowledge and understanding of the Scouts Australia program.
- Have excellent IT skills, including the ability to use the Microsoft Office 365 package, online registration systems, and complex spreadsheets.
- Experience in international travel.

You will be required to commit a significant amount of time for this role. Anticipate approximately 5 -10+ hours per week. Applicants should ensure they have the flexibility in their time to be able to accommodate this significant contribution considering their work and study requirements. They should be available during the lead up to and the full duration of the event including the HOC Meetings, pre and post tours. This role is a volunteer position and you will be required to undergo a probationary period of 6 months to assess suitability to the position.
