16TH NZ VENTURE
AUSTRALIAN CONTINGENT
WELLINGTON, AOTEAROA

Day 3 of Post Tour offered something for everyone, with groups heading off on a range of incredible experiences. Some travelled to the breathtaking Milford Sound, taking in the dramatic scenery and iconic fjords, while others challenged themselves on the Ben Lomond Track, earning epic views over Queenstown. Others spent time kayaking on the lake, soaking up the stunning alpine scenery, while the adrenaline continued with jet boating on the Wānaka River and plenty of fun lugging back in town. The day wrapped up in cool style, with everyone coming together for a memorable night out at the Ice Bar, rounding off another unforgettable day of adventure.

FUN FACT OF THE DAY

Queenstown is where the world's first commercial bungee jump started, the Kawarau Bridge bungee, basically inventing the idea of paying to jump off things for fun.

HELPFUL TIP OF THE DAY

Finish mindfully. Take a moment to breathe, stretch, and check in with yourself, staying present helps you enjoy the last experiences and look after your wellbeing right to the end.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

Don't forget to set your alarms and be ready on time for each activity, punctuality helps everyone make the most of the day! Take a moment to check the activities schedule so you know what's coming up and don't miss any of the fun. And most importantly, remember the code of conduct. Staying on top of these simple steps ensures a smooth, safe, and enjoyable venture for all.
