

VENTURE VOICE

ISSUE 5 - FROM SEA TO SUMMIT

16TH NZ VENTURE
AUSTRALIAN CONTINGENT
WELLINGTON, AOTEAROA

JOKE OF THE DAY

Why did the Venturer bring a ladder to Venture?

Because the AdVentures were on another level.

HELPFUL TIP OF THE DAY

Check in with yourself. Big trips can be exciting but overwhelming, so take a moment each day to notice how you're feeling and speak up if you need extra support or a break.

CONTINGENT SHOUTOUT

Kathryn L & Alana W

Kathryn & Alana have been amazing at setting up base for Adrenaline Junkies at Upper Hutt. No job has been too hard, and they've done it with a smile.

Conner C

They are an absolute angle and caryed peoples bag when they couldn't and was really helpful.

Have some cool photos?
Feel free to share it with the Australian Contingent via the QR and Dropbox.

EXPEDITION NEWS

Eco Tourist has taken on the Escarpment Track in some seriously wild conditions, pushing through very heavy rain and strong winds and being rewarded with absolutely amazing views.

Despite the weather, spirits stayed high and teamwork shone through as the group embraced the challenge and made the most of every moment.

Alongside this, some awesome images have been coming in from other expeditions, capturing vertical activities in full swing and adventurers stepping well outside their comfort zones.

CMT ADVENTURES

The CMT took a break from the desk and headed over to try out the onsite abseiling wall. Harnesses on and nerves checked, it was all about having a go, a few laughs, and seeing the activity from the Venturer Scouts' point of view. Safe to say it was a fun way to test the setup and enjoy a bit of adventure right onsite.

